

Before There Was An Alphabet

There were poems made of pictures there were cave walls decorated with them hunters and what they hunted even the things that hunted them all had their place.

Has anything changed?

By Michael Gullickson

Artwork by Sebastian Avalos SAY Sí

National Poetry Month in San Antonio is made possible with funding from the City of San Antonio Department of Arts & Culture.