

The Honey Badger

Roaming in the wild
Or sold for money
It's clear to see
That this badger's no honey

Claw marks and teeth marks
Hisses and growls
It could make even the toughest
Empty their bowels

By Hazel Marie Spedding

Keystone School
Young Pegasus 2017

Artwork by Tess Pilotte
North East School of the Arts

National Poetry Month in San Antonio is made possible with funding from the City of San Antonio Department of Arts & Culture.