.01 PURPOSE

VIA Transit Police Officers will ride service vehicles both in uniform and in plainclothes to create a safe environment for patrons and employees. Officers riding on service vehicles increases the visible and covert police presence on board active service vehicles and bus routes. The deployment of officers on service vehicles will be done in the most effective and efficient manner to maximize visibility and safety.

.02 POLICY

On duty officers with the VIA Transit Police Department shall, as part of their normal duties, ride service vehicles as assigned to increase visibility and safety on the bus routes. The primary responsibility for officers on service vehicles is to safeguard the patrons and operators of VIA. The officer should always focus on safety and customer service. Code of Conduct violations and Fare Disputes are handled only as secondary matters to Officer, Patron and Operator Safety.

.03 UNIFORMED BUS PATROLS

- D. While riding a service vehicle, officers are representing the entire police department and shall provide professional customer service at all times. Examples of customer service include but are not limited to:
 - 1. Engage the operator when entering the bus and answer any questions the operator may have; remembering to not distract the operator while in vehicle is in motion;
 - 2. Officers should complete the Bus Route Orientation Training and become familiar with viainfo.net to assist patrons in customer service inquiries;
