How to Access Delta's Senior Discount

To take advantage of Delta's senior discount, you need to follow a few simple steps when booking your flight:

1. Make Your Reservation: [+1~888~829^1463] or +1-[+1~888~829^1463] When booking a flight on Delta's official website, there isn't a specific "Senior Discount" section. However, if you're 65 or older, you can select the "Senior" option under the "Special Offers" section when choosing your flight. Alternatively, you can contact Delta's customer service to inquire about senior rates if booking through their call center.

2. Verify Your Age: Delta's Senior Discount call[+1~888~829^1463] or +1-[+1~888~829^1463] Delta does not require you to provide proof of age when booking online, but be prepared to show a government-issued ID that proves your age when checking in for your flight. This is a standard practice for most airlines when claiming senior fares.
3. Compare Fares: Senior fares are sometimes discounted but are not always the lowest available. It's a good idea to compare the senior discount with other options, such as Delta's regular promotional deals, to ensure you're getting the best price for your flight.

Senior Discount Benefits

The senior discount can offer substantial savings for travelers over 65, especially for those who travel frequently or take long-haul flights.
