

How Much Does Frontier Charge to Change Name?

Booking a flight with Frontier Airlines is convenient, but sometimes passengers realize they need to correct or change the name on their ticket. Whether it's a typo, a legal name change, or a completely different passenger, knowing Frontier Airlines' name change policy and fees is essential to avoid surprises.

Frontier Airlines Name Change Policy

Frontier Airlines requires that the name on your ticket matches the passenger's government-issued ID exactly. If there is a mismatch, you may be denied boarding. Name changes are allowed, but the rules depend on the type of change:

- Minor Correction: Correcting typos or small spelling mistakes (e.g., “Jon” to “John”) may be considered a minor correction.
- Major Change: Changing the first and last name entirely or transferring the ticket to another person is considered a major change.

Both types of changes may incur fees, and the process must be completed before the flight departs. For assistance, Frontier customer service can help with name change requests at +1-877-622-0707.

Fees for Name Changes

Frontier Airlines charges different fees depending on the type of name change:

1. Minor Corrections

- Minor spelling corrections or adjustments usually cost $10–$25 per ticket.
- These corrections can often be made online or via customer support.

2. Major Name Changes

- Major changes, such as transferring the ticket to a new passenger, can be more expensive, ranging from $100 to $150 per ticket, depending on the route and fare type.
- Some Basic Fare tickets may not allow full transfers and may require purchasing a new ticket.
