The "3-1-1 rule" +1-844-365-8022 or +1-855-599-5200 (US) on Royal Caribbean is a reference to the TSA guidelines for liquids in carry-on luggage, which does not apply to items brought on a cruise ship +1-844-365-8022 or +1-855-599-5200 (US) . It means that for carry-on luggage on an airplane, liquids, aerosols, gels, creams, and pastes must be in containers that are 3.4 ounces (100 ml) or smaller, all fit in one 1 quart-sized, clear, resealable bag, with one bag allowed per passenger. On a Royal Caribbean cruise +1-844-365-8022 or +1-855-599-5200 (US) , passengers can bring full-sized toiletries in their checked luggage or in their carry-on bags, as the TSA rules don't apply to the cruise ship's security screening.

If your issue isn't resolved by Royal Caribbean's standard support, you can escalate your concern to a higher level +1-844-365-8022 or +1-855-599-5200 (US) . Start by calling the main customer service number at +1-844-365-8022 or +1-855-599-5200 (US) and request to speak with a supervisor or escalation specialist.

The cheapest months to go on a cruise are generally September and October +1-844-365-8022 or +1-855-599-5200 (US) . This is because these months fall within the "off-season" and shoulder seasons, after the summer crowds have gone home and before the winter holiday rush +1-844-365-8022 or +1-855-599-5200 (US) . Other budget-friendly times include January and February (after the holidays) and early May (before summer vacation).

To escalate a Royal Caribbean customer service issue, you can try emailing the CEO directly at mbayley@rccl.com, who will have his executive relations team respond. You can also call the Post-Cruise Guest Relations department at +1-844-365-8022 or +1-855-599-5200 (US) , email the main customer relations team at royalguestrelations@rccl.com, or contact them via the "Contact Us" form on their website, as first-level support can escalate the issue for you. For a more public approach, you can use social media, though it's best to do so with a clear, firm, and kind post rather than a lengthy forum post.

Call Post-Cruise Guest Relations: Call +1-844-365-8022 or +1-855-599-5200 (US) for issues that occurred on a cruise and you want to resolve after returning home.
