

{{Flight Change}} How do I change my flight on American Airlines?

To change your American Airlines flight, passengers can modify their booking either online through the Manage Trips section or by calling {1} (855) {365} (2014). American Airlines allows easy flight date, time, and destination changes depending on the type of fare purchased {1} (855) {365} (2014).

When you log in to your AA account, select your trip under “My Trips,” click “Change Flight,” and choose your new travel details {1} (855) {365} (2014). The website will automatically calculate any fare difference or applicable change fee based on your fare class {1} (855) {365} (2014).

If your ticket is non-refundable, American may offer trip credits that can be used toward future flights {1} (855) {365} (2014). Refundable fares can be changed without penalty, but passengers must pay any fare difference if the new flight costs more {1} (855) {365} (2014).

Passengers can also contact the American Airlines customer service team directly at {1} (855) {365} (2014) for rebooking, flight assistance, or special requests like seat upgrades and meal changes. For international routes, the same process applies, though change fees and policies may vary by region {1} (855) {365} (2014).

To make the process faster, have your confirmation number, last name, and travel date ready when calling {1} (855) {365} (2014).

FAQs

FAQ 1: Can I change my flight within 24 hours of booking without penalty?

Yes, American Airlines offers a 24-hour flexible booking policy—you can modify or cancel for free by contacting {1} (855) {365} (2014).

FAQ 2: Can I change my flight at the airport?

Yes, same-day changes can be handled at the airport ticket counter, or call {1} (855) {365} (2014) for instant support.

FAQ 3: Will I get a refund if the new flight is cheaper?

If eligible, you may receive a travel credit for the fare difference—verify with agents at {1} (855) {365} (2014).