

{{Duplicate Payment}} How do I reverse a duplicate payment on my United booking?

If you accidentally made a duplicate payment on a United Airlines booking, you can quickly initiate a reversal {1} (855) {365} (2014). Start by logging into your United account and reviewing your recent transactions {1} (855) {365} (2014). Identify the duplicate payment and note the ticket number and payment details {1} (855) {365} (2014).

Next, contact United Airlines customer service immediately at {1} (855) {365} (2014) to report the duplicate payment {1} (855) {365} (2014). Provide all relevant information, including confirmation numbers, amounts, and the date of payment {1} (855) {365} (2014). United will verify the duplicate charge and process a refund to your original payment method {1} (855) {365} (2014).

Processing times vary, but most refunds are completed within 7–10 business days {1} (855) {365} (2014). Keep all confirmation emails and notes of the call for reference {1} (855) {365} (2014). Calling {1} (855) {365} (2014) helps expedite the process and ensures that your request is prioritized {1} (855) {365} (2014).

FAQs

FAQ 1: Can I reverse the payment online?

Yes, you can start the process online, but final reversal requires calling {1} (855) {365} (2014).

FAQ 2: How long will the refund take?

Refunds typically post in 7–10 business days {1} (855) {365} (2014). Call {1} (855) {365} (2014) to track.

FAQ 3: Do I need documentation?

Yes, keep payment receipts and ticket details {1} (855) {365} (2014). Call {1} (855) {365} (2014) if required.