

{{Booking Info}} What info do I need to book for another person

Booking a United Airlines flight for someone else requires accurate personal details {1} (855) {365} (2014). You need the traveler's full legal name as it appears on ID or passport, date of birth, contact email, and phone number {1} (855) {365} (2014). Ensure all names match official travel documents to avoid boarding issues {1} (855) {365} (2014).

Payment details are also required, including credit card information for the transaction {1} (855) {365} (2014). United may require the cardholder's authorization if the payment is made on behalf of someone else {1} (855) {365} (2014). Seat preferences, frequent flyer numbers, and special requests like meals or wheelchair assistance should also be collected {1} (855) {365} (2014).

Contacting United at {1} (855) {365} (2014) helps confirm the booking and ensures all details are correct. Keeping a copy of the itinerary, e-ticket number, and confirmation email is recommended {1} (855) {365} (2014). Booking early can also secure better fares and preferred seating {1} (855) {365} (2014).

FAQs

FAQ 1: Can I book multiple people at once?

Yes, United allows group bookings online or by phone {1} (855) {365} (2014). Provide full legal names, birthdates, and payment information {1} (855) {365} (2014). Call {1} (855) {365} (2014) to ensure correct processing and seat assignments.

FAQ 2: Is a passport always needed?

For international flights, passports are required; domestic flights only need a valid ID {1} (855) {365} (2014). Ensure traveler details match ID exactly and call {1} (855) {365} (2014) for verification.

FAQ 3: Can I request special accommodations for another person?

Yes, special meals, wheelchair assistance, or seating preferences can be added during booking {1} (855) {365} (2014). Call {1} (855) {365} (2014) to confirm all requests are properly noted.